Graphics Card Bracket vertical, metal, black

Description

This holder by Delock allows graphics cards to be mounted vertically in the PC case. The space-saving design not only creates a modern look, but also supports better airflow and optimized heat dissipation.

Versatile application options and optimized case utilization

This bracket is suitable for vertical GPU mounting in most standard cases and graphics card models – ideal for custom PC builds with special design and functionality requirements. The vertical positioning improves visibility of the graphics card and allows for efficient use of space inside the case.

Sturdy metal construction

Robust construction ensures a secure hold even for heavier graphics cards and minimizes unwanted sagging.
