

Cable Duct self-adhesive with sliding cover 15 x 10 mm - length 1 m, pack of 5 pcs, white

Description

The self-adhesive cable duct with sliding cover by Delock is the ideal solution for neat, secure, and visually clean cable management in living spaces, offices, and work environments. Thanks to its simple white design, the cable duct blends discreetly into any environment and ensures that unsightly cables disappear neatly.

Practical sliding cover for easy access

The integrated sliding cover allows the cable duct to be opened and closed with ease. Cables can be easily inserted, added, or replaced at any time without having to dismantle the entire duct.

Self-adhesive mounting – no drilling required

Due to the strong self-adhesive surface, quick and clean installation is possible. No tools are required, leaving walls and furniture undamaged.

Flexible use and can be cut to size

The cable duct can be easily cut to the desired length with a cutter or saw. Suitable for mounting on walls, ceilings, baseboards, furniture, or desks.
